4.1.3. Declarant's Easements.

a. Declarant reserves an easement (until Declarant shall have satisfied all of its obligations under any Condominium Document and all commitments in favor of any Unit Owner and the Association) to use portions of the Common Elements and any Units owned by Declarant for construction or renovation related purposes including the storage of tools, machinery, equipment, building materials, appliances, supplies and fixtures and the performance of work respecting the Property.

or storm water. The easement created by this Section 4.1.3b expressly includes the right to cut any trees, bushes, or shrubbery, to grade the soil or to take any other action reasonably necessary, following which the Declarant shall restore the affected property as closely to its original condition as practicable.

c. For driving and removing nails, screws, bolts and other attachment devices into the Unit side surface of the stone, block, brick or other masonry walls bounding the Unit and the Unit side surface of the studs which support the dry wall or plaster perimeter walls bounding the Unit, the bottom surface of floor joists above the Unit and the top surface of the floor joists below the Unit to the extent the nails, screws, bolts and other attachment devices may encroach into a part of a Common Element adjacent to such Unit; provided that any such action will not unreasonably interfere with the common use of any part of the Common Elements, adversely affect either the thermal or acoustical character of the Building or impair or structurally weaken the Building.

d. For the maintenance of the encroachment of any lighting devices, outlets, medicine cabinets, exhaust fans, ventilation ducts, registers, grills and similar fixtures which serve only one Unit but which encroach into any part of any Common Elements or Limited Common Elements on the date this Declaration is recorded or was thereafter installed by Declarant during the Declarant Control Period or within two (2) years after the termination thereof.

(i) Nothing contained in Section 7.1(a) hereinabove or elsewhere in this Declaration shall give a Unit Owner, or any other party, priority over any rights of the mortgagee of a Unit pursuant to its mortgage in case of a distribution to such Unit Owner of insurance proceeds or condemnation awards for loss to or a taking of one or more Units and/or Common Elements.

b. No Unit Owner or purchaser of a Unit shall deliver any mortgage or other lien instrument secured by a Unit, or any obligation to be secured thereby, unless it has first notified the Executive Board of the name and address of the proposed mortgagee or lien holder, the amount of the debt proposed to be so secured, and has submitted to the Executive Board a copy of the form of the proposed mortgage and note or other instrument of obligation. In the event additional Units are created, Declarant will endeavor to make such buildings aesthetically compatible and of comparable quality with the building and other improvements initially constituting the Condominium.

10.3. Declarant Right to Withdraw Real Estate. Declarant reserves the right to withdraw any or all portions of the Withdrawable Real Estate at any time, at different times, in any order, without limitation, and without the consent of any Unit Owner, Mortgagee, Trustee, or Beneficiary under a Deed of Trust; provided, however, that the withdrawable land shall not exceed the area described on Exhibit "C" hereto. The right to withdraw real estate may be terminated by the Declarant upon the recordation by Declarant of an amendment to this Declaration executed and acknowledged by the Declarant indicating such election to terminate.

10.4. Declarant Right to Add Real Estate. Declarant reserves the right to expand the Condominium from time to time without the consent of any Unit Owner or any holder of any Mortgagee, or Trustee, or Beneficiary under a Deed of Trust. The right to expand may be terminated by the Declarant upon the recordation by Declarant of an amendment to this Declaration executed and acknowledged by the Declarant indicating such election to terminate. The Declarant reserves the right to add part or all of Lot 22, Miracle Hills Park, a subdivision in Douglas County, Nebraska to the Condominium at any time within seven (7) years from the date this Declaration is recorded.

Declarant reserves the right to build buildings, make other improvements on such additional land and to create Common Elements and Limited Common Elements thereon; provided, however, Declarant may create a maximum of 124 Units upon the added real estate. In the event improvements are constructed on such additional land, Declarant will endeavor to make such buildings aesthetically compatible with the Building and the other improvements initially constituting the Condominium.

10.5 Exercise of Development Rights. Any Development Right exercised pursuant to Sections 10.2, 10.3 or 10.4, above, shall be affected by the Declarant by the recordation with the Register of Deeds of Douglas County, Nebraska, of an Amendment to this Declaration executed and acknowledged by the Declarant which shall, among other things (i) identify the land and other improvements which are being added to or created in the Condominium, (ii) identify the nature, size and location of any improvements to be constructed on such land, and (iii) reallocate among the Unit Owners and those units to be constructed the percentage of interest in the Common Elements and corresponding costs and expenses of the Condominium as initially constituted and as expanded; such reallocation shall be computed as though the additional Units had been included as a part of the Condominium as initially constituted.

Upon recordation of such Amendment, each Unit of the Condominium, as initially constituted and as expanded, shall have the percentage of interest in all Common Elements of the Condominium, as initially constituted and as expanded, as expressed in such Amendment.

Concurrently, with the recordation of such Amendment, if any, reference in this Declaration to Condominium shall include and refer to all expansion areas and the Bylaws of the Condominium and its Rules and Regulations shall apply with equal force to the Condominium as initially constituted and as expanded without the need of any further affirmative action.

All deeds of conveyance to any unit within the Condominium, as initially constituted and or expanded, shall contain a provision that the percentage in interest in the Common Elements appurtenant to any such Unit shall be automatically reallocated upon the recordation of an Amendment expanding the Condominium as provided in this Section.

The Declarant reserves the irrevocable right to reallocate the percentage of interest appurtenant to each of the Units in the Condominium in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver such further instruments as may from time to time be required in order to accomplish the purposes of this Section 10.4. Each Owner and each holder of a mortgage of a Unit in the Condominium, as initially constituted and as expanded, shall be deemed to have acquiesced in the Amendments to this Declaration for the purpose of adding additional Condominium Units and Common Elements to the Condominium in the manner described in this Section.

ARTICLE XI
UNITS SUBJECT TO CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS; EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 11.1. Applicability of Condominium Documents. Each present and future owner, lessee, occupant and mortgagee of a Unit shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of the Act, this Declaration (including the Plats and Plans), the Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations and with the covenants, conditions and restrictions as set forth in this Declaration (including the Plats and Plans), the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and the deed to such Unit; provided that nothing contained herein shall impose upon any lessee or mortgagee of a Unit any obligation which the Act or one or more of such documents, or both, make applicable only to Unit Owners (including, without limitation, the obligation to pay assessments for Common Expenses). The acceptance of a deed or mortgage to any Unit, or the entering into of a lease or the entering into occupancy of any Unit, shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of the Act, this Declaration (including the Plats and Plans), the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and the covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in the deed to such Unit are accepted and ratified by such grantee, mortgagee or lessee insofar as applicable. All of such provisions shall be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such Unit, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed, conveyance, mortgage or lease thereof.

Section 11.2. Eminent Domain. Whenever all or part of the Common Elements shall be taken, injured or destroyed by eminent domain, the Association shall represent the Unit Owners in negotiations, settlements and agreements with the condemning authority. Each Unit Owner appoints the Association as Attorney-in-Fact for this purpose. Each Unit Owner shall be entitled to notice thereof, but in any proceedings for the determination of damages, such damages shall be determined for such taking, injury or destruction as a whole and not for each Unit Owner's interest therein. The award or proceeds of settlement shall be payable to the Association for the use and benefit of the Unit Owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear.

ARTICLE XII
EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE ASSOCIATION

Section 12.1. Powers of Executive Board. The Executive Board of the Association shall possess all of the duties and powers granted to the Executive Board by the Act.

Section 12.2. Composition of Executive Board. The Executive Board shall consist of five (5) members who shall be elected at Annual Meetings of Association members except that until the First Transition Election there shall be only three (3) members of the Executive Board, which three (3) members and any successors to such three (3) members shall be appointed by the Declarant until the end of the Declarant Control Period. One (1) additional Executive Board member shall be elected at the First Transition Election. One (1) additional Executive Board member shall be elected at the Second Transition Election. At such Transition Elections all Unit Owners other than the Declarant shall have the right to vote for the additional Executive Board members. During the Declarant Control Period successors to the two (2) additional members of the Executive Board shall be elected by the vote only of Unit Owners other than the Declarant. Each Executive Board member shall hold office pursuant to the provisions relating thereto in the Bylaws.

Section 12.3. Disputes. In the event of any dispute or disagreement between any Unit Owners relating to the Property, or any questions of interpretation or application of the provisions of this Declaration (including the Plats and Plans), the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations, the ultimate determination with respect thereto by the Executive Board following an appeal to such Executive Board from the association body making a determination in the first instance shall be final and binding on each and all such Unit Owners. The Executive Board shall have the authority to seek a declaratory judgment or other appropriate judicial relief or order to assist it in carrying out its responsibilities under this Section 12.3. All costs of obtaining such a judgment shall be borne by the disputants, or in the absence of disputants, by the Association as a Common Expense.

Section 12.4. Amendments to the Condominium Documents. The Condominium Documents may be amended only in accordance with the Act and the Condominium Documents. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Declaration to the contrary, if any amendment is necessary in the judgment of the Executive Board to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provisions of the Condominium Documents that are defective, missing or inconsistent with any other provisions thereof, or if such amendment is necessary to conform to the requirements of the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the Federal Housing Administration, the Veterans Administration or other secondary mortgage market lenders, guarantors, or insurers with respect to condominium projects, then at any time and from time to time, the Executive Board may effect an appropriate corrective amendment without the approval of the Unit Owners or the holders of any liens on all or any part of the Property, upon receipt by the Executive Board of an opinion from independent legal counsel to the effect that the proposed amendment is permitted by the terms of this sentence. Each amendment of the type described in this Section 12.4. shall be effective upon the recording of an appropriate instrument setting forth the amendment and its due adoption, which instrument has been executed and acknowledged by one or more officers of the Executive Board.

Section 12.5. Abating and Enjoining Violations by Unit Owners. The violation of any Rules and Regulations adopted by the Executive Board, the breach of any provision contained in the Bylaws or the breach of any provision of this Declaration or the Condominium Act by any Unit Owner, shall give the Executive Board and any aggrieved Unit Owner the right, in addition to any other rights to which it may be entitled, to enjoin, abate, or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such breach.

Section 12.6. Insurance. The Executive Board shall obtain and maintain insurance as provided in the Bylaws.

BY-LAWS

1. These are the By-Laws of Miracle Hills Park Place Condominium Association, Inc., a Nebraska nonprofit corporation.
2. Seal. The corporate seal shall bear the name of the corporation and the words "Corporate Seal."
3. Members. This corporation has been organized to provide a means of management for the above described condominium property regime. Membership in the Association is automatically granted and restricted to record owners of Units in the Condominium property regime. Each Unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote.
4. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the members of the Association will be held for the purpose of electing an Executive Board and transacting any other business that may come before the meeting. Not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days in advance of any meeting, the Secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice to be hand-delivered or sent postage prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit owner. The notice of any meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the declaration or bylaws, any budget changes, and any proposal to remove a director or officer.
5. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the President, a majority of the Executive Board or by Unit Owners having twenty percent (20%) of the votes in the Association. Not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days in advance of any meeting, the Secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice to be hand-delivered or sent postage prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit owner. The notice of any meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the declaration or bylaws, any budget changes, and any proposal to remove a director or officer.
6. Quorum. A quorum of members' meeting shall consist of that number of persons entitled to cast twenty percent (20%) of the votes which may be cast for election of the Executive Board. The affirmative vote of persons entitled to cast twenty percent (20%) of the votes which may be cast for election of the Executive Board shall be required to adopt a decision on the part of the members.

7. Voting, Proxies.

(a) If only one of the multiple owners of a Unit is present at a meeting of the Association, he or she is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that Unit. If more than one of the multiple owners are present, the votes allocated to that unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the multiple owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the multiple owners casts the votes allocated to that unit without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the Units.

(b) Votes allocated to a unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy duly executed by a Unit Owner. If a Unit is owned by more than one person, each owner of the unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by other owners of the unit through a duly executed proxy. A Unit Owner may not revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section except by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the Association. A proxy is void if it is not dated or purports to be revocable without notice. A proxy terminates one year after its date unless it specifies a shorter term.

(c) If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the condominium be cast by lessees rather than Unit Owners of leased units; (i) the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section apply to lessees as if they were Unit Owners; (ii) Unit Owners who have leased their Units to other persons may not cast votes on those specified matters; and (iii) lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records, and other rights respecting those matters as if they were Unit Owners.

8. Executive Board. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration the affairs of the Association shall be managed by an Executive Board of five (5) Directors. All Directors (unless appointed by the Declarant pursuant to Special Declarant rights in the Declaration) must be members of the Association as defined in Paragraph 3 above.

Any Director (except for one appointed by the Declarant pursuant to Special Declarant rights in the Declaration) may be removed by the vote of the owners of the majority of the Units. In the event that a Director is so removed, a substitute Director shall be elected to serve the unexpired portion of the term of the Director who was removed. In the event that a Director dies or resigns during his term as Director, a substitute Director shall be elected to serve the balance of the term of the deceased or resigning Director.

A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum, and a majority vote of Directors present at a meeting comprising a quorum shall constitute the act of the Executive Board of the Association. The Executive Board shall have authority for the care, upkeep and surveillance of the condominium buildings and their general and limited common elements or services and also the designation and dismissal of personnel necessary for the workings and the general and limited common services of the condominium buildings. Compensation of Directors and employees of the Association shall be fixed by the Executive Board, and a contract for management of the condominium buildings may be entered into with a Director. In the event that an agreement or a contract is entered into by the Executive Board and any other entity in which any one or more members of the Executive Board has a financial interest or business relationship, the nature of the interest or relationship shall be fully disclosed to the entire Executive Board prior to entering into such agreement or contract.

The Executive Board shall not be liable to the Association or any Association member for any mistake or error in judgment or for any act or omission made or done in good faith. The Executive Board shall be liable for any acts or omissions resulting from an intentional wrong doing. The Association shall indemnify any Director for his actions in executing his duties as a Director; provided, however, that such indemnification shall not extend to acts or gross negligence or dishonesty. The Executive Board shall not, either as a group or individually, except as otherwise provided herein, be responsible for any matters not covered by the insurance policy owned by the Association.

The Executive Board is invested with complete authority to make decisions pertaining to the maintenance, construction and/or installation of all fences, trees, gardens, shrubs, exterior lighting and any and all other matters which may affect the external appearance of the condominium properties.

The Executive Board is also invested with the authority to resolve any and all disputes of any nature whatsoever as to matters which are not specifically addressed by these amended By-Laws or the Declaration.

9. Annual Meeting of Executive Board. An annual meeting of the Executive Board shall be held immediately following the annual meeting of the members of the association. No additional notice of such annual meeting shall be required. Special meetings of the Executive Board may be called by the President or by a majority of the Directors upon forty-eight (48) hours' prior notice of such meeting, which notice shall be given either personally, by mail, telephone or telegraph.

10. Officers. Officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Directors. Compensation of the officers, if any, shall be fixed by the Directors. Any person may hold two or more offices, but no one person shall hold the offices of President and Secretary. The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and such additional officers as the Administrators shall, from time to time, deem necessary.

(a) President. The President, or the Vice-President in the absence or disability of the President, shall be the chief executive officer of the Association; shall preside at the meetings of the members and of the Directors; shall execute all contracts and instruments on behalf of the Association; shall have general management of the corporate affairs and shall effect all orders of the Executive Board.

(b) Secretary. The Secretary shall record the Minutes of the Administrators and of the members. The Secretary shall keep the Minute Book of the Association in his possession. The Secretary shall also have custody of the corporate seal and affix it to such instruments as are authorized by the Administrators and the Secretary shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the President or the Directors.

(c) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have custody of the funds and securities of the Association and shall also account for all corporate receipts and disbursements. The Treasurer shall also perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the President or the Executive Board.

11. Budget. The Directors shall adopt a budget for each calendar year which shall include the estimate of funds required to defray common expenses anticipated during the fiscal year and to provide funds for anticipated current expenses, reserves for deferred maintenance, reserves for replacement and reserves to provide a working fund or to satisfy anticipated losses. The budget shall be adopted in the eleventh month of each fiscal year for the succeeding fiscal year, and copies of the budget and proposed assessments shall be sent to each owner on or before the last day of the fiscal year preceding the year for which the budget is adopted. Budgets may be amended during a current year if necessary, and in the event that the budget is amended, copies of the amended budget and proposed increases or decreases in assessments shall be mailed to each owner as promptly as possible. There shall be no enlargement of the common elements or additional structures built as part of the common elements if the cost of such enlargement or additional construction will exceed $3,000.00 unless and until such proposed enlargement or construction is approved by a majority of the owners the Units at a meeting called to vote upon such issue; provided, however, such approval shall not be required for enlargement or Common Elements made or constructed by Declarant pursuant to Special Declarant Rights set forth in Article X of the Declaration.

12. Assessments. Assessments against each Unit for common expenses shall be made annually on or before the last day of the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year for which assessments are made. The Annual assessments shall be due in twelve (12) equal monthly installments, payable on the first day of each and every month. The amount of the assessment which is to be levied against each Unit shall be each Unit's pro-rata share of the total annual budget of the regime in which such Unit is located based upon the percentage to be born by that Unit as set forth in the Declaration. In the event that an annual budget is amended, the amended assessment shall be payable at the time specified in the notice of the amended assessment sent to each owner. If any co-owner shall fail or refuse to make any payment of an assessment when due, the amount of such payment shall constitute a lien on the interest of the co-owner in his apartment, and the Directors may record such lien in the office of the Register of Deeds. Interest shall accrue on any assessments which are more than ten (10) days delinquent at the highest contract rate of interest then permitted by the Statutes of the State of Nebraska, or at eighteen percent (18%) per annum if contract interest is unregulated by statute, from the date that the same was due until the date that the same is paid. If any installment of an assessment is delinquent for more than 10 days, the balance of the assessment due and owing for that fiscal year shall become immediately due and payable.

13. Nuisances; Annoyances. The Executive Board shall have authority to resolve all disputes pertaining to practices which may constitute an annoyance or nuisance to owners or residents of the Units located within the condominium property regimes, which practices may interfere with the peaceful use and enjoyment of the owner or resident. The Board shall have exclusive authority to determine whether or not a given practices constitutes an annoyance or nuisance. In the event that the Executive Board determines that a practice constitutes a nuisance, annoyance or interference, the Board shall notify the offending party of such practice and instruct such offending party that such practice shall cease. In the event that such practice does not cease, the Board may notify the offending party in writing advising the offending party that a hearing will be held concerning the practice in question, and that the Board may, after such hearing, if determined that such practice did constitute a nuisance, annoyance or interference, impose a fine against the offending party not to exceed $100.00. If the Board does determine that a fine should be assessed against the offending party, the determination of the board to assess such fine must be approved by the owners of a majority of the Units. If the owners of a majority of the Units do approve the assessment of such fine, and if the offending party fails to pay such fine, such fine may be assessed against the apartment owned by or occupied by the offending party and enforced as any other lien against the apartment.

14. Decks, Patios and Fences. The Association shall be responsible for maintaining and staining and/or painting of balconies affixed to Units.

The Association may, in its discretion, paint, stain, maintain, repair or replace any patio, patio cover, deck cover, fence or any other exterior addition to any unit which is not common to all other units, but in the event that the Association does paint, stain, maintain, repair or replace any patio, patio cover, deck cover, fence or any other exterior addition to any apartment that is not common to all other units, the cost of the same shall be borne by the apartment owner to which the same is affixed or who constructed such addition or who is the principal recipient of the benefit derived by the existence of such addition.

Should the apartment owner elect to install, paint, stain, maintain, repair or replace any of those items designated in the next preceding paragraph, such installation, painting, staining, maintenance, repair or replacement shall first be approved by the Executive Board to insure that such action by the apartment owner will conform aesthetically with the other apartments located in the condominium regime. In any event, the cost of painting, staining, maintaining, repairing, or replacing any of the items set forth in the next preceding paragraph shall be the responsibility of the apartment owner to which such addition is affixed or the apartment owner who derives the principal benefit from the existence of such addition. In the event that the Association does effect any of those items designated herein and the apartment owner fails or refuses to pay for the same, the cost of the same may be enforced against an apartment in the same manner as any other lien provided for by these By-Laws.

No apartment owner or resident may make any improvement, alteration, additional or deletion which may affect the exterior appearance of any of the condominium property without first submitting a written request for approval for the same to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall respond to such request in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of such request. Prior to making a determination as to whether such request will be granted, the Executive Board shall send to all apartment owners an agenda of the meeting of the Executive Board at which such determination will be made advising each apartment owner that there will be held at that particular meeting of the Executive Board a discussion and possible action on the request of an apartment owner to construct or perform an improvement, alteration, addition or deletion which may affect the external appearance of one of the condominium property regimes.

In the event that a Unit owner does not obtain prior written approval from the Executive Board to construct or perform any improvement, alteration, additional or deletion or to do any other act which may affect the appearance of the exterior of any condominium property regime, and if such owner or resident does make such modification, the Executive Board may remove the improvement or addition or correct the alteration or deletion or take any other action necessary to remedy the modification to effect the desired conformity of external appearance of the condominium regime. Any expenses incurred by the Executive Board to remedy such improvement, alteration, addition, deletion or other change may be enforced in the same manner as any other lien against the apartment as provided by the provisions of these By-Laws. The Executive Board shall, prior to taking such action required to remedy any situation designed herein, send written notice of such intended action to the Unit Owner who has failed to obtain the requisite approval. The Unit Owner may, within five days of the date of such notice, request a hearing before the Executive Board regarding the proposed action of the Executive Board. After such hearing, if the Executive Board does determine that some action is required to correct the improvement, alteration, addition, deletion or other change, the Association will grant to the apartment owner thirty (30) days in which to take such corrective action. In the event that the Unit Owner does not take such corrective action within said thirty (30) day period, the Executive Board may, without further notice, perform such corrective action, and the cost of the same shall constitute a lien against the subject apartment, which lien may be enforced as any other lien as provided by the provisions of these By-Laws.

15. Insurance. The Association shall furnish and maintain in full force and effect a policy or policies of insurance as required by 76-871 of the Act.

16. Access. The Executive Board shall have the right of access to each apartment at all reasonable hours to inspect and to perform any necessary or emergency work upon all pipes, wires, conduits, ducts, cables, utility lines and any common elements accessible from within any apartment, and to insure compliance by each co-owner of all of his duties under the provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws and any additional rules and regulations which may be promulgated by the Executive Board.

17. Amendment. These By-Laws and the system of Administration set forth herein may be amended by the vote of co-owners representing ownership of at least 66-2/3% of the Units, but each such amendment shall embody all of the provisions required by §76-815 of the Revised and Reissued Statutes of the State of Nebraska or any other Statutes which may be applicable. Such amendment shall be executed and acknowledged by the President and attested to by the Secretary of the Association on behalf of the Association and shall be operative upon the recording of such amendment in the office of the Register of Deeds of Douglas County, Nebraska in the same manner as the Declaration and these amended By-Laws. Additionally, those co-owners approving of such amendment shall execute such amendment. Additionally, the Directors of each Association approving of such amendment shall execute the same.

18. Severability. In the event that any provision of the Declaration, By-Laws or rules and regulations is declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or by any Statute or rule of law, such invalidity shall not impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the remaining provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws or rules and regulations, and, in such event, all of the remaining provisions of said documents shall remain in full force and effect as if such invalid provision had not been included therein.

I, Terry L. Clauff, the duly-elected and acting Secretary of the Corporation hereby certify that the foregoing By-Laws, consisting of Articles I through XI, inclusive, are a true and correct copy of the By-Laws adopted by Shareholders of the Corporation at their First Meeting held upon the 18 day of November, 1985, and as approved, ratified and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation upon the same date.
